PRESS RELEASE

Albany, New York —United States Attorney Andrew T. Baxter and Patrick Coultry, Resident Agent in Charge of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Office of Investigations, Albany, Department of Homeland Security, announced today that STANLEY NADORASKI, age 41, of Albany, New York, pled guilty in United States District Court in Albany before District Judge Norman A. Mordue to Count One of an Information charging him with the possession of child pornography.

In connection with his plea today, NADORASKI admitted the following in a written plea agreement and during his plea proceedings:

Between about April, 2008 and April 22, 2009, NADORASKI, while in his residence, used his Dell XPS 410 desktop computer which contained a Western Digital hard drive, serial no. WD-WCANK9742771, to access various websites featuring child pornography. Three websites were visited by NADORASKI. These websites were known child pornography websites. While on these websites, NADORASKI either paid for access, or accessed for free, child pornography still images and videos which he then downloaded and saved in various electronic sub-folders on the aforementioned computer.

On or about April 22, 2009, a federal search warrant was executed at the defendant's residence and three computers were seized and searched. Forensic examinations of the seized computers were subsequently conducted and the aforementioned Dell XPS 410 desktop computer was identified as containing child pornography. Approximately fifteen (15) still images and twelve (12) videos depicting minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as those terms and phrases are defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2256(2), were recovered from said computer. Said images depict individuals under the age of 18 engaged in, among other things oral sex, vaginal sex, masturbation, and the lascivious exhibition of the genitals and pubic area. All of the images recovered depict actual, as opposed to computer generated, images of minors engaged in such conduct. Some of these images depict prepubescent minors engaged in such conduct.

NADORASKI knowingly and willfully received and possessed the aforesaid images located on said computer. In addition, he received, downloaded and possessed the images knowing that they depicted minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct. NADORASKI obtained such images from, among other places, individuals and websites located outside the State of New York. Moreover, such images, and the actual computer used to obtain and download these depictions, were transported in interstate and foreign commerce and were produced using materials that had been mailed, or shipped or transported in interstate and foreign commerce.

On or about April 22, 2009, NADORASKI was interviewed by law enforcement officials. During this interview, he stated, among other things, that:

- i. He used the aforesaid computer to search for and access child pornography websites;
- ii. On some occasions he paid for access to various child pornography websites;
- iii. Once viewing child pornography accessed via a child pornography website, he would download and save still images and videos to his computer;
- iv. His interest was in finding and viewing images of girls between the ages of 8 and 12; and
- v. That he had been purchasing child pornography subscriptions since at least May, 2008.

Sentencing was scheduled by Judge Mordue for March 1, 2010, at 10:00 a.m. in U.S. District Court in Albany, New York. NADORASKI faces a maximum penalty of 10 years imprisonment. He also faces a fine of up to $250,000.00. NADORASKI was released pending his sentencing.

The case was investigated by the Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Office of Investigations in Albany, New York and the Colonie Police Department.
